AFOREWORD

1960!! How full and memorable the year has been for us! Football, beanies, fog, the great ice sheet, trips, exams, baseball, lectures, swims at the lake—these and countless other events constitute another vanished year on the mountain.

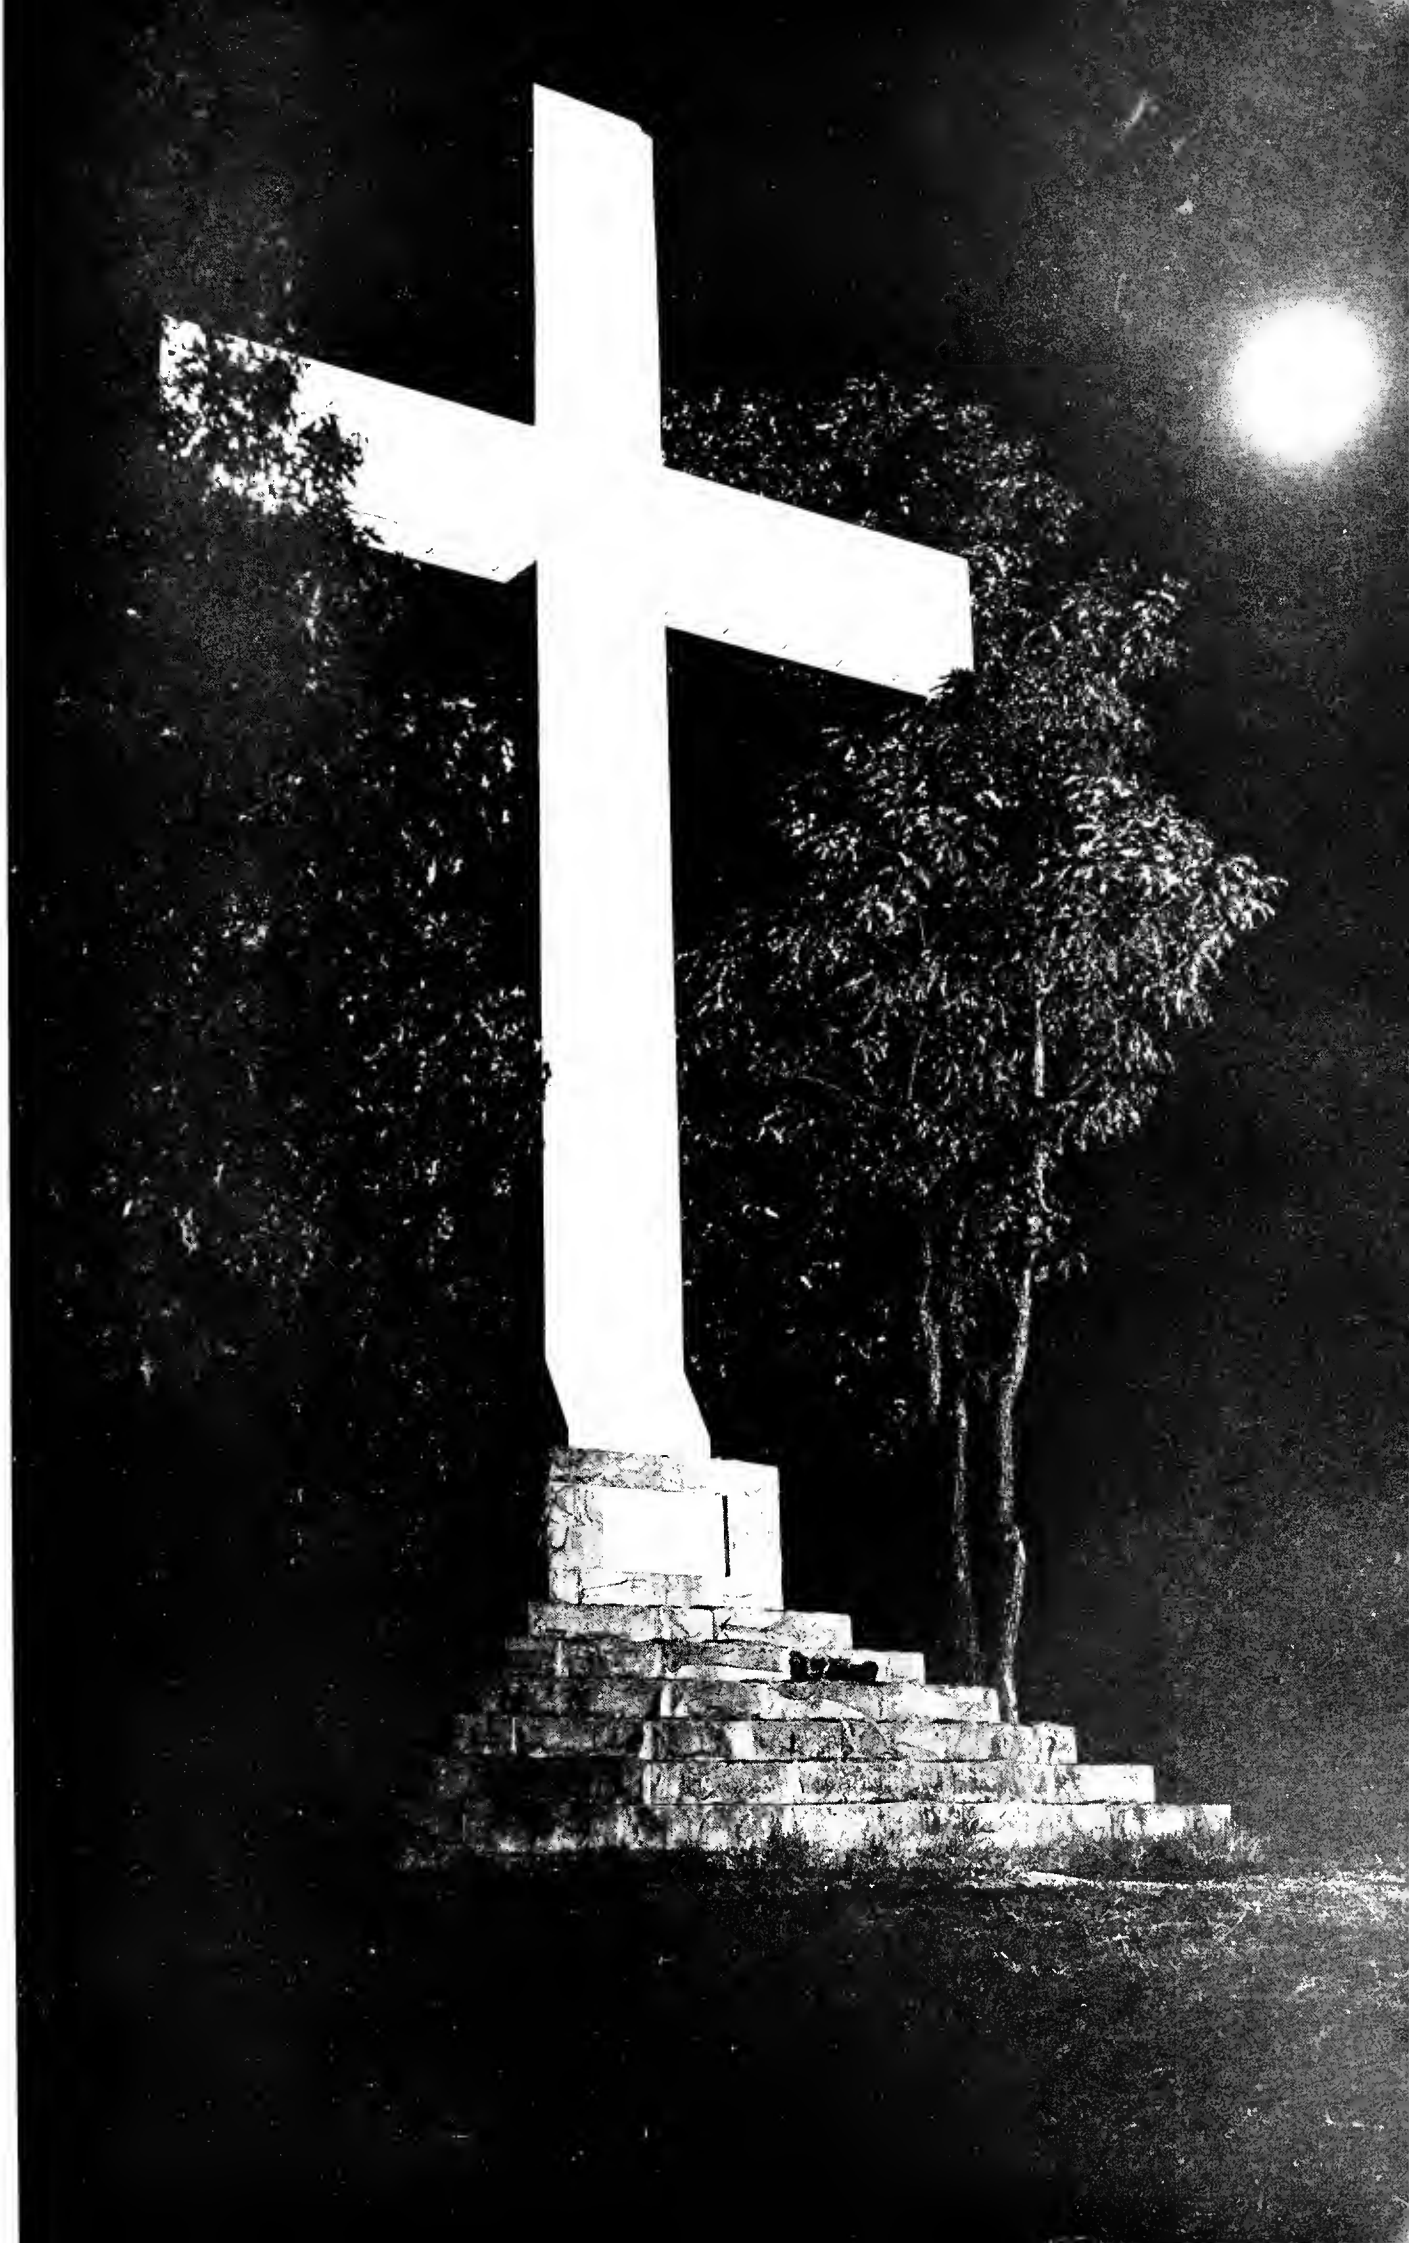

The CAP AND GOWN does not pretend to capture what Sewanee "is", either verbally or pictorially. Its purpose will be best realized if it evokes from time-hazed memory, now, and in years to come, some of the treasured moments of your Sewanee days.

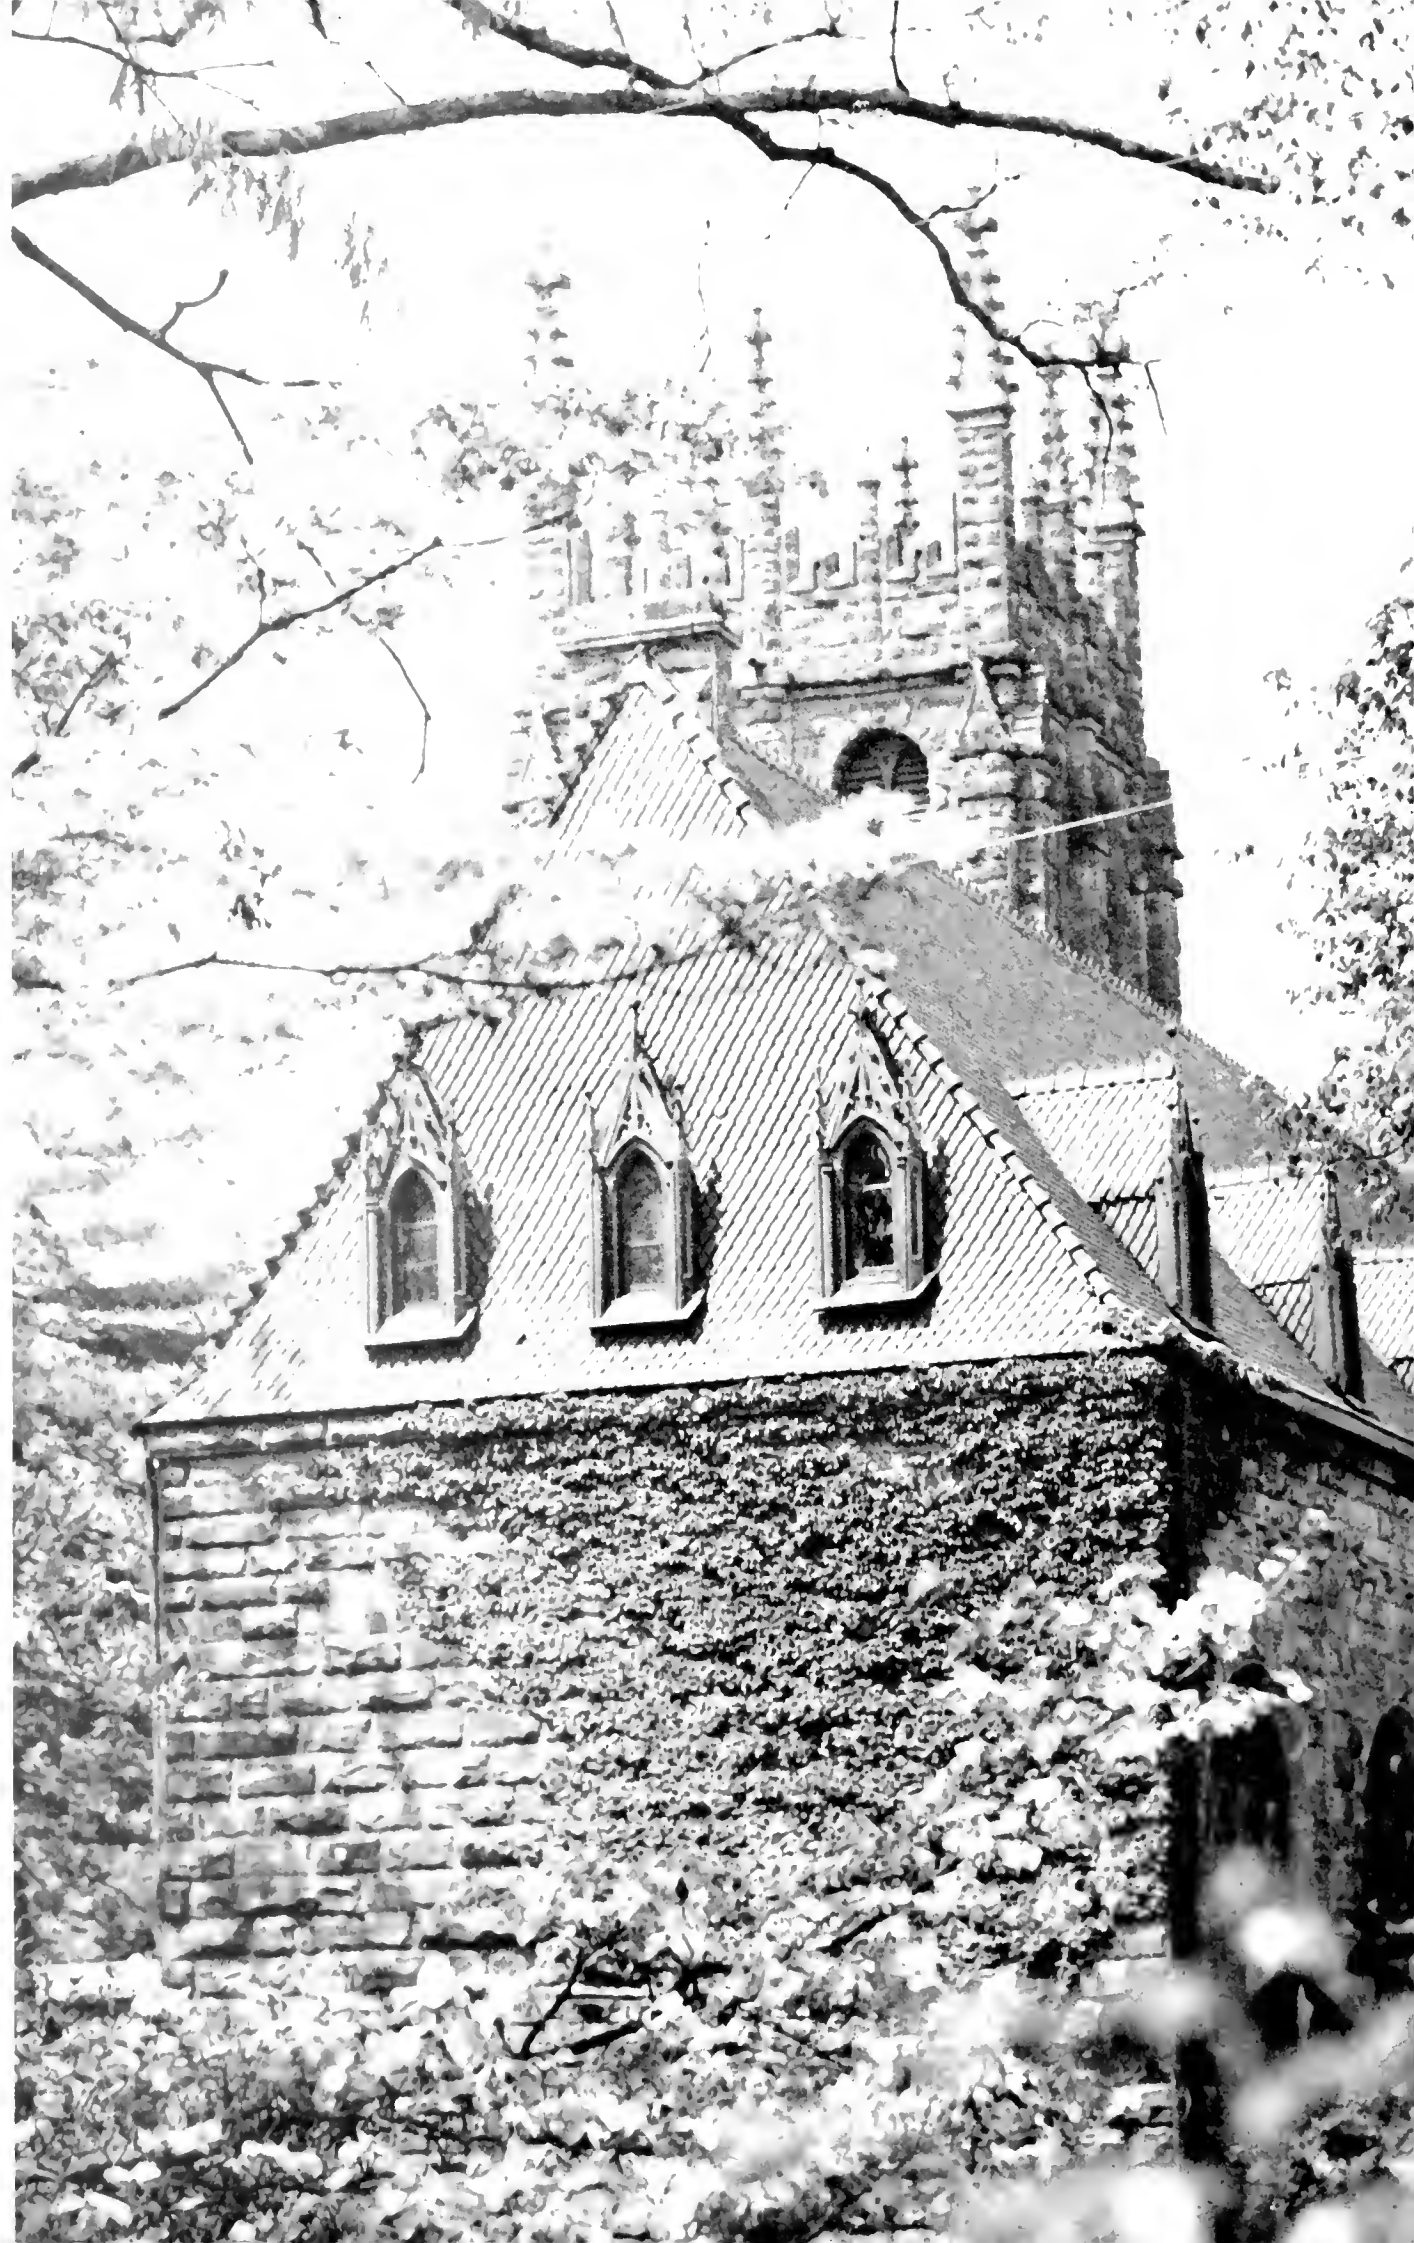

HE UNIVERSITY WAS BORN

OUT OF A VISION OF GREATNESS . . .

A TRUE NOBILITY AND LOFTINESS OF PURPOSE AND DESIGN . . .

T HAS BEEN SUSTAINED

BY SUCH A VISION . . . THE HABITUAL VISION OF GREATNESS."

—Alexander Guerry

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the 1960 CAP AND GOWN is dedicated to Dr. John Webb, Dean of Men of the University, and Professor of History.

The duties of Dean Webb are numerous and widely varied, as we all know. Besides his teaching schedule, he is responsible for the discipline of the student body, which no doubt consumes much of his time. Dr. Webb deserves unlimited praise for his firm and just handling of disciplinary problems throughout the past three years. No one envies his job, but the University could not ask for greater competency.

The fact that Dean Webb maintains a friendly and avid interest in all the activities of the mountain and her individuals makes the dedication of the annual to him particularly appropriate. Few members of the faculty or administration play a more whole-hearted part in the work, sport, and relaxation of Sewanee. From his desk, lectern, the athletic stand, the Union, even from right field of the intramural pasture, he views, participates in, and contributes to, the life of our school. The entire mountain welcomes this opportunity to salute, acknowledge, and thank Dean Webb.

THOMAS NEELY CARRUTHERS
June 10, 1900-June 12, 1960

THE CHANCELLOR

The Right Reverend Thomas Neely Carruthers was in the fourth year of his six year term as Chancellor of the University of the South. Bishop Carruthers, Bishop of South Carolina, was a familiar figure at Sewanee. He received his B.A. degree from the University in 1921 and his B.D. from St. Luke's in 1929. He taught in the English department of the College and had been a member of the Board of Regents for several terms. In 1940, he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity, bestowed upon him by the University.

Since his ordination in 1926, Bishop Carruthers had served as rector of St. Peter's Church, Columbia, Tennessee; Trinity Church, Houston, Texas; and Christ Church, Nashville; until he was consecrated Bishop of South Carolina on May 4, 1944. Bishop Carruthers was the former president of the Episcopal Church's Fourth Province, which includes fifteen dioceses in nine southern states.

The Chancellor acts as president of the Board of Trustees, ex-officio member of the Board of Regents and is a bishop of one of the University's twenty-one owning dioceses.

VICE-CHANCELLOR

Too seldom it is that an institution finds itself in the hands of a leader possessing the rare combination of assets and talents of Sewanee's Dr. Edward McCrady. The enormous range of Dr. McCrady's interests and activities complement his position as Vice-Chancellor of this great liberal arts university. Dr. McCrady is respected in such diversified fields as biology, speleology, theology, music, and art. In previous years he received international renown in his capacity as senior research biologist at Oak Ridge. His career strikingly refutes the current notion of America's 20th century specialized man. Dr. McCrady comes from a family closely associated with Sewanee, but he was educated at the College of Charleston, B.A., the University of Pittsburgh, M.S., and the University of Pennsylvania, Ph.D. The son of an Episcopal minister, Dr. McCrady has been most successful combining modern science with Christianity. His influence as Vice-Chancellor of the University of the South has been felt and acknowledged far from the Mountain.

THE BOARD OF REGENTS

The Board of Regents, which is selected by the Board of Trustees, is the executive agency of the Board of Trustees. It is composed of three Bishops, three Priests, and six laymen of the Episcopal Church, with the Chancellor and Vice-

Chancellor serving as ex-officio members. It has the power of granting honorary degrees and of government and maintenance of the University except the duties particularly reserved to the Board of Trustees.

DEAN OF THE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

The School of Theology is a seminary of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Established in 1878 as a constituent college of the University of the South, it is under the same administration as the College of Arts and Sciences, but has its own dean and faculty.

The Very Reverend George Moyer Alexander is serving his fourth year as Dean of the School of Theology. He received his B.A. and B.D. degrees from Sewanee.

Dean Alexander has served several parishes in the Diocese of Florida and served as editor of the "Florida Forth" magazine for five years. He also served as secretary of the Diocese of Florida. His last parish before coming to Sewanee was Trinity of Columbia, S.C., during which rectorship he was for six years a member of the University's Board of Regents.

Before coming back to Sewanee, Dean Alexander took a year's work at General Theological Seminary studying all phases of theological school work.

"1959 is a year long to be remembered by ATO's" said the 1959 CAP AND GOWN, after fire had destroyed the oldest ATO house in the country. But 1960 is a year to be remembered even longer by Sewanee ATO's, for this year a new chapter house was built on the ruins of the old.

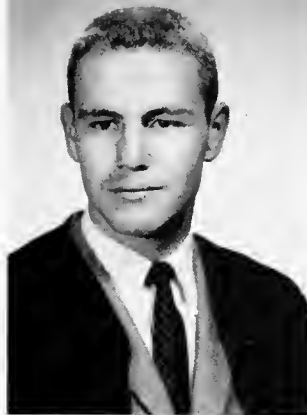

The new ATO house has features of the traditional in its antique-glass Gothic windows and its three-story spiral staircase. The new, too, is evident in the added room, which includes a bar and a ladies' room. Spring Week End in April saw the dedication of the new lodge.

1960 is to be remembered for other reasons. With the help of a banner pledge class, ATO won back the lead in intramural athletics, fielding undefeated teams in both football and basketball. And in varsity participation and scholarship Tennessee Omega continued to maintain its position. Social activities hit a high water mark with the completion of the new house, indicating bigger and better things to come.

As Gamma Chi of Beta Theta Pi proceeds in its second decade at Sewanee, it finds its roots deeply embedded in the life of the University. This year has been extremely active and eventful for the chapter in its achievements in all aspects of the campus life. Several individuals of the chapter have attained positions of honor in the fields of scholarship and campus leadership.

An effective rush program brought new members into the chapter who will prove valuable to the fraternity and the University. Elaborate social plans have given the members several very enjoyable and memorable parties during the school year, as well as a number of informal gatherings. The chapter's athletic program has proven successful also as shown by varsity and intramural participation.

Each year has brought greater success and strength to Beta Theta Pi. With the goals toward which the chapter is working, the abilities of the members, and the high standards of Beta Theta Pi, an illustrious future seems inevitable.

B E T A T H E T A C H A P T E R

Beta Theta Chapter of Delta Tau Delta, now in its seventy-seventh year at Sewanee, grew to near capacity in last fall's rush, and plans have been made for even greater expansion in membership and facilities. The Chapter has been represented in numerous campus organizations and has rated very high in scholastic standing. Enthusiastic participation in intramural sports has also yielded good results.

Social activities in the past year were unusually well-planned and successful, as evidenced by the really outstanding parties on Homecoming and Mid-Winters weekends. Several banquets were held, and a special reception was given by the Chapter in honor of Bishop James W. Hunter of Wyoming.

The many successes of the past year in Delta Tau Delta promise another even more successful year in all phases of campus life.

The seventy-seventh year on The Mountain for Alpha Alpha Chapter of Kappa Alpha was one which saw the Order make continued progress toward fulfillment of its ideals through excellence in all phases of endeavor. In student administration, honorary organizations, and publications, KA again claimed a lion's share of the leaders. The chapter reaffirmed its pre-eminent position in scholastics by winning the first semester Scholastic Trophy. In intramurals, KA again was among the leading contenders for the Intramural Athletic Trophy, with the Spring sports, in which KA is traditionally strong, still to come. A particularly versatile pledge class augmented the chapter's achievements by noteworthy scholastic and athletic efforts. With the success of Homecoming, Midwinters, and Old South, in addition to many other social activities, KA rounded out another year of prominence in all fields.

Couched in tradition, upholding its ideals and the spirit of its founders, and proud in its rich Southern heritage, Kappa Alpha looks with confidence to the coming year, striving, as ever, for excellence.

The seventy-eighth year of Omega Chapter was a truly unforgettable one in all aspects of campus life. The Chapter's fourteen newly initiated members exemplify the high ideals and traditions of Kappa Sigma. While pledges, they saw one of their members elected to the Honor Council. Their pledge tea was a decided success with over 400 attending.

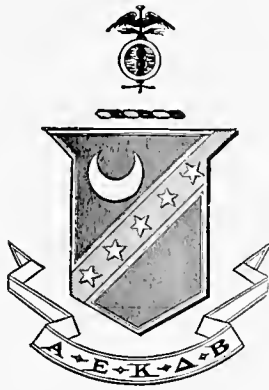

The Chapter had members in many important organizational and varsity athletic positions, in addition to gaining the largest amount of intramural points in recent years and maintaining its high scholastic average.

Kappa Sig's continued to set the pace for the Mountain's parties. Homecoming and Mid-Winter's weekends saw the lodge house bursting with crowds of enthusiastic merry-makers. Anticipation runs high for the Star and Crescent Spring Weekend, which is the annual highlight of the Kappa Sigma social season.

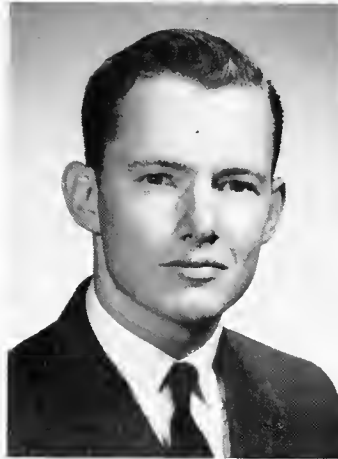

The current building boom at Sewanee has not left Kappa Sigma behind. The Chapter is in the process of building a beautiful stone-columned front porch, and has begun extensive interior renovation.

Based on its past record, Omega Chapter expects more and better things in the year to come.

Tennessee Beta of Phi Delta Theta commenced the academic year with a very successful rush season led by Brother John Rothpletz. The Phi Deltas have been, as usual, strong contenders in all intramural activities this year, winning cross-country, soft-ball, track, and golf, and finishing strongly in other sports. Phi Delt participation in varsity athletics this year has also been noteworthy.

The Pledge Tea in honor of Thad Lockard, language professor, was a great success. Under the leadership of presidents Bob McManis, Bob Gregg, and chapter advisor O. N. Torian, the Phis have enjoyed another rewarding year of participation in the many activities of the mountain.

G A M M A S I G M A C H A P T E R

Gamma Sigma Chapter of Phi Gamma Delta received its charter from the Fraternity in 1919 and has been active in all campus functions since this date. The Fijis repeated again the successes of another busy and fruitful year.

An active rush week increased the fraternity's size by 25 members. The Fijis were outstanding in scholarship, athletics, campus organizations, and social activities. Social activities included a Homecoming party, Mid-Winters party and the annual Fiji Island party.

Although the Fiji Lodge was destroyed by fire on January 5, 1960, the Fijis have been thoroughly occupied with a rebuilding program. It is hoped that a new modern Lodge will be ready for the start of the school year in the fall of 1960.

With an increased membership, the high Fiji standards of the past, and the addition of a new lodge, the Fijis have all the indications of many more successful years.

The president of Phi Gamma Delta for the past year was Jim Wisialowski.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity was founded on the ninth day of March, 1856, at the University of Alabama, in the old city of Tuscaloosa. Twenty-five years later Tennessee Omega chapter was founded. Tennessee Omega was the first SAE Chapter to own its own house. The first house was built through the efforts of the chapter membership which obtained the government contract for delivering the mail at the University. Through the years Tennessee Omega has continued to enlarge its house.

On Monday, the 10th of August, 1959, construction was started which has resulted in Tennessee Omega's present lodge. The recently renovated house was made possible through the unending work of Brother Harding C. Woodall, member of the Board of Regents of the University. It is an established fact that the SAE house is one of the finest on the mountain.

Not only is Tennessee Omega outstanding in extra-curricular and intramural fields, but Tennessee Omega took second place in pledge class academic improvement, thus winning a cash prize of $50.00. In all fields this has been an outstanding year for SAE at Sewanee.

This year Beta Omicron Chapter of Sigma Nu celebrated its seventieth year at Sewanee.

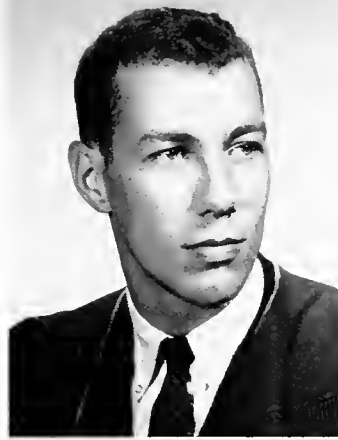

On the whole, Sigma Nu had one of its best years on the mountain. Social ventures proved to be roaring successes. During Mid-Winters Weekend, Mrs. Guerry was adopted as the chapter sweetheart. A formal White Rose party in the spring highlights the social year.

The overall outlook in intramural sports and scholarship brightened this year, as Sigma Nu improved greatly in both these realms.

The Association of Independent Men climaxed its most successful year, inaugurated by several well attended beer-blasts, and the acquisition of the Chaplain's old house for a lodge. This year marked the first participation of the Association in the Homecoming Parade, and was highlighted by the annual Independent Bridge Tournament. Independents also participated in intramural sports, and several were elected to offices in various campus organization.

Plans are now under way for the construction of a permanent house to become the social center for the 150 non-fraternity men on campus. With the notable achievements of this, its tenth year, the Association looks forward to even greater success in the next decade.

ASSOCIATION OF INDEPENDENT MEN

The Pan-Hellenic Council is the students' regulatory body for the nine national fraternities on the Mountain. Fraternity presidents, or other elected or appointed representatives belong to the group. Its main functions are to supervise the running of the fraternity system and to work with the administration in furthering the common aims of the school and fraternities. It is most active during Rush Week, which it regulates and defines, and in sponsoring the annual Help Week programs.

Student Government at Sewanee is provided by the Order of Gownsmen. A recent university ruling changed the membership of the Order by conferring the gown on seniors with a 2.00 average and on juniors with a 2.25 average for the previous semester. The ruling also conferred the gown on sophomores with a 3.00 over-all average. Students in the School of Theology are also awarded the gown but do not vote.

The official functions of the Order of Gownsmen are carried out through its several committees following action by the Order sitting as a body. Its functions lie in the chartering of new student organizations, conducting official business between the administration of the University and the students, attending to problems of student discipline, especially freshmen discipline, and in supervising the sale of class rings. The principal committees of the Order are the Executive Committee, the Discipline Committee, and the Ring Committee. The Executive Committee is made up of the president, vice-president, the secretary of the Order, and one Gownsmen representative from each fraternity and one from the Independents. Its duties include the scheduling of meetings of the Gownsmen, and conducting the business of the Order. The Discipline Committee also has one representative from each fraternity and one from the Independents. It usually meets once a week to assess penalties against students who have disobeyed the rules of the Order. The Ring Committee is responsible for the sale of class rings to juniors and seniors desiring them.

An ordinance was passed by the trustees in 1871 prescribing that caps and gowns be worn by students and faculty of the University, following the Oxford-Cambridge traditions upon which Sewanee was to be modeled. Two years later, in 1873, William Porcher DuBose, at that time Chaplain of the University, arranged for junior and senior students to be excused from military drill, and organized the Order of Gownsmen. Membership was limited to graduate students, and to the more advanced undergraduates. Since its founding, the Order has steadily taken on more responsibility in the handling of student affairs.

TONY VEAL
Head Proctor

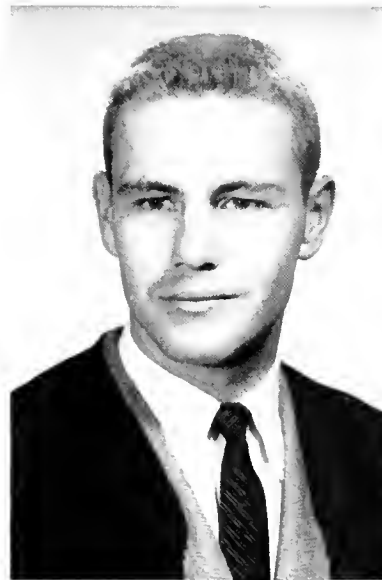

The Proctors form the necessary link between the Administration and the student body, a position which carries with it obligations and responsibilities to both. Among their several responsibilities, the Proctors enforce the rules of the University, and handle the various and continuous problems which arise in the dormitories. They also carry out supervision in the chapel, the dining hall, and elsewhere on campus, when needed. At the close of each year, the Proctors meet and elect their successors, who are in turn approved by the Administration. Because of the responsibility of such a position, only those students considered to be reliable, competent, and conscientious are chosen. Appointment, then, to the position of Proctor carries honor and prestige, and is one of the loftiest salutes a man can receive while attending Sewanee.

The Honor Council is composed of two seniors, two juniors, one sophomore, one freshman, and three theological students, elected annually by their respective classes. Each student who enters the University is asked to sign the Honor Code, and, by so doing, he pledges not to violate the Code in any way during his years at Sewanee. The Honor System plays an important role in the distinctiveness of Sewanee life, for examinations and quizzes are virtually unsupervised. Meeting seldom, the Honor Council convenes only when a case is to be presented. When such an instance occurs, its members study the facts carefully and decide whether or not the Code has actually been violated. If it has, they recommend to the Dean of the College that the offender be requested to withdraw from the University. Thus the observance of the Honor Code, and the trust and privileges accorded the students by its existence, are not taken lightly. It is indeed a credit to the University, its Administration, and its student body that the Council meets so infrequently.

The Publications Board is the heart of the smooth and successful running organs of expression at Sewanee. The editors and business managers of the three official student publications, the Sewanee "Purple," the CAP AND GOWN, and the "Mountain Goat," serve in an ex-officio capacity as members of the Board. It is very significant that free rein is given to each in the policy to be followed by the respective publications. The Board is headed by Dr. Monroe K. Spears, editor of the nation's oldest literary quarterly—the "Sewanee Review," and Dr. Robert Degen, assistant professor of economics. The Board's primary functions are to receive and approve nominations for the editors and business managers of the student publications, to follow the progress of the publications during the year, and to supervise the allocation of publications funds to the organizations. With the inclusion of three faculty members selected by the Vice-Chancellor, two students elected from the Order of Gownsmen, one member of St. Luke's faculty, and one theological student, the Board represents a vital cross-section of campus interest and activity.

MOUNTAIN GOAT

RANDY PARKER, Business Manager

The "Mountain Goat," named for that horny denizen of the crags, was first organized in 1925 and continued to exist, spasmodically, till the outbreak of the Second World War. A magazine of somewhat similar aims appeared in 1948, titled the Helikon, but this publication, lacking the fertile vitality of the Goat, suffered a speedy demise. Finally, in 1951, the Goat itself was re-organized under a subsidy from the University, and has continued publication ever since.

Composed primarily of student writing, the Goat includes fiction, humor, criticism, and poetry. The Goat was edited by Lloyd Elie.

THE SEWANEE PURPLE

The Sewanee Purple, the Mountain's newspaper, is "The official organ of the students of the University of the South." Like the other publications under the governance of the Publications Board, the Purple is edited and managed by undergraduates selected through campus-wide elections. The Purple is published regularly once a week throughout the academic year—on Wednesday evenings. Although it gives competent coverage to all events of interest on the campus, it far surpasses the minimum requirements of a college newspaper by publishing weekly editorials and letters-to-the-editor on controversial and stimulating local topics, national issues, movies, books, music reviews, and interesting features. It is printed by the University Press.

Editing the CAP AND GOWN is a year-long task which furnishes those involved with frustration, entertainment, and, ultimately, satisfaction. This year's book has survived a fire in the office, theft of a car containing much of the manuscript, and the thousand additional mishaps we somehow expect.

The CAP AND GOWN has appeared in the summer this year, due to the wish of the Publications Board that Commencement Exercises be covered in the annual.

Let me take this opportunity to thank my small but hardy group of co-workers for making the 1960 CAP AND GOWN possible. Compilation of names, information, and pictures has been, believe it or not, fun and rewarding.

The highest recognition of scholastic achievement at the University of the South is membership in Phi Beta Kappa. This organization is open to all students in the College with a grade-point average of 3.7 for five semesters or 3.5 for seven semesters' work. This requirement is very rigid, and consequently only the most capable and hard working of the student body are able to fulfill it.

Phi Beta Kappa was originally founded at the College of William and Mary in 1776 as a literary social fraternity. The Tennessee Beta Chapter was organized at Sewanee in 1926 when the University's academic standing was approved.

At the end of each semester Phi Beta Kappa awards a scholarship trophy to the fraternity whose members maintain the highest academic average.

Phi Beta Kappa holds an initiation ceremony shortly after the close of the first semester in each school year. All those who are then qualified are awarded membership in the order.

OMICRON

Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity, was organized to give student leaders in fields other than scholarship the kind of recognition that they deserve in very much the same way that Phi Beta Kappa recognizes scholastic attainment. Membership in the organization is limited to three per cent of the student body, and to gownsmen. It is evidence of a well-rounded personality and of exceptional leadership ability, since eligibility is determined on the basis of a point system, which is arranged so that a sufficient number of points can only be acquired by excellence in several different fields. These various fields of endeavor include scholarship, student government, athletic ability, publications, speech, and dramatics. Aside from concrete accomplishments, a great deal of emphasis is placed on personal character.

The national organization of Omicron Delta Kappa was founded at Washington and Lee University, Virginia, on December 3, 1914. The Alpha Alpha circle of the fraternity was chartered at the University of the South in 1929. At Sewanee, Omicron Delta Kappa has demonstrated that it is not an inactive organization. In addition to providing a measure for personal excellence, it has served to bring outstanding leaders in all fields into close association; and by voting various faculty members to membership, it has significantly furthered faculty-student understanding.

From every senior class the most outstanding members are selected for listing in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Nominations for this honor are made by the Executive Committee of the Order of Gownsmen, which every year chooses the students that it considers best qualified to represent Sewanee in the publication. Some of the criteria used in selecting the students are personal character, scholarship, extracurricular participation, leadership in student affairs, initiative, and promise of future usefulness. Representatives for listing in "Who's Who" are selected by more than 650 colleges and universities in the United States and Canada each year. The idea behind the publication is to present a sort of atlas of collegiate leadership and to inspire effort in the fields of scholarship and extra-curricular activities as well. Aside from the national recognition which is realized by inclusion in "Who's Who", local election by students themselves gives the seniors deserved recognition for their four years' contribution.

K E Y

Membership in Blue Key, national honor fraternity, is based on ability in many fields of collegiate endeavor. These include not only scholarship, leadership, athletic ability, character, and work in student activities, but potentiality for future growth as well. New members for Blue Key are tapped for membership at Homecoming and Spring dances. This fraternity sponsors a large number of campus activities. Blue Key begins the year by sponsoring the Homecoming Queen Contest and presenting the winner with a bouquet of roses. Also, the Intramural All-Star football game, the annual pre-season debate tournament, and the Sewanee Variety Show are services of Blue Key. Perhaps Blue Key's major presentation of the school year is the Inter-Fraternity Blue Key Sing. The ushers for chapel services and other official functions of the University are Blue Key members. Thus, by grouping outstanding students in one organization, Blue Key works for the best interests of the campus and the Sewanee community.

Founded in the nineteenth century, the historic German Club derives its name from a popular dance of the period. Its duties are important and many. The Club's primary function is the sponsoring, planning, coordinating, and financing of the principal dances held throughout the academic year. Membership in the German Club is limited to two men from each fraternity and two from the Association of Independent Men. Perhaps the largest single task of this group is the contracting of bands for the dances. This Homecoming, the Lester Lanin band graced the formal, while "Papa John" Gordy provided sounds for the jazz concert. The Auburn Knights played for Mid-Winter's, and again, "Papa John". Extravagant decorations are always in evidence at a German Club function. The German Club has been under the leadership of president Ed Williamson, and his three "subordinates," John Rothpletz, Wortham Smith, and Felder Frederick.

ACOLYTE'S GUILD

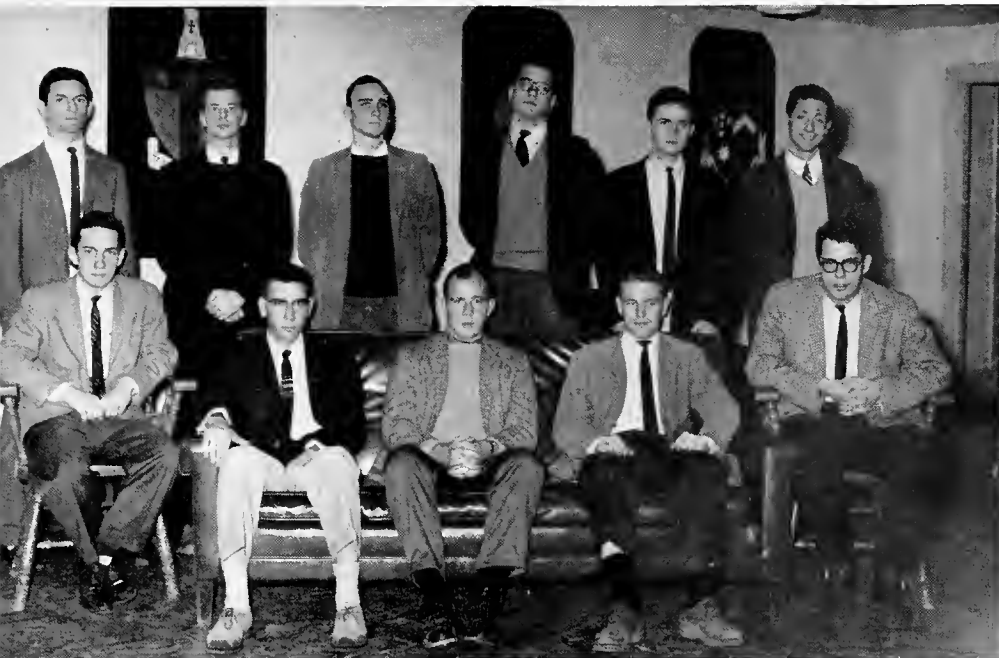

The Acolyte's Guild of All Saints' Chapel is the organization that furnishes all the servers and crucifers for the innumerable church services that are held during the year. In close conjunction with other service groups at Sewanee, the Guild helps to sponsor the St. Mark's Milk Fund drive. This provides milk for the students in the local Negro school.

THE CHOIR

One of the most active organizations on the Mountain, the University Choir, is directed by Mr. Paul McConnell. The thirty-voice choir provides the music for the daily and Sunday services throughout the year. An especially prepared anthem is presented each Sunday. Choir practice is held twice a week, on Monday and Thursday nights. In keeping with the custom of years gone by, the choir presented a series of special programs during the year. The most popular of these was the traditional Christmas Carol Service. Containing a large segment of the student body, the choir is open to students of any religious denomination. During the past six years, the choir has recorded two albums of sacred music. The second was issued in 1955, under the RCA label, and was sponsored by the Music Club.

Pi Gamma Mu is a national honorary social science fraternity whose membership is composed of upperclassmen. This group inspires interest in the social studies by debates, lectures, and seminars on current political questions, in addition to holding regular closed meetings. Members of Pi Gamma Mu are regular contributors to the editorial pages of the Purple. In this way, the society is an indirect voice of the students concerning our present-day social interests and viewpoints.

PI GAMMA MU

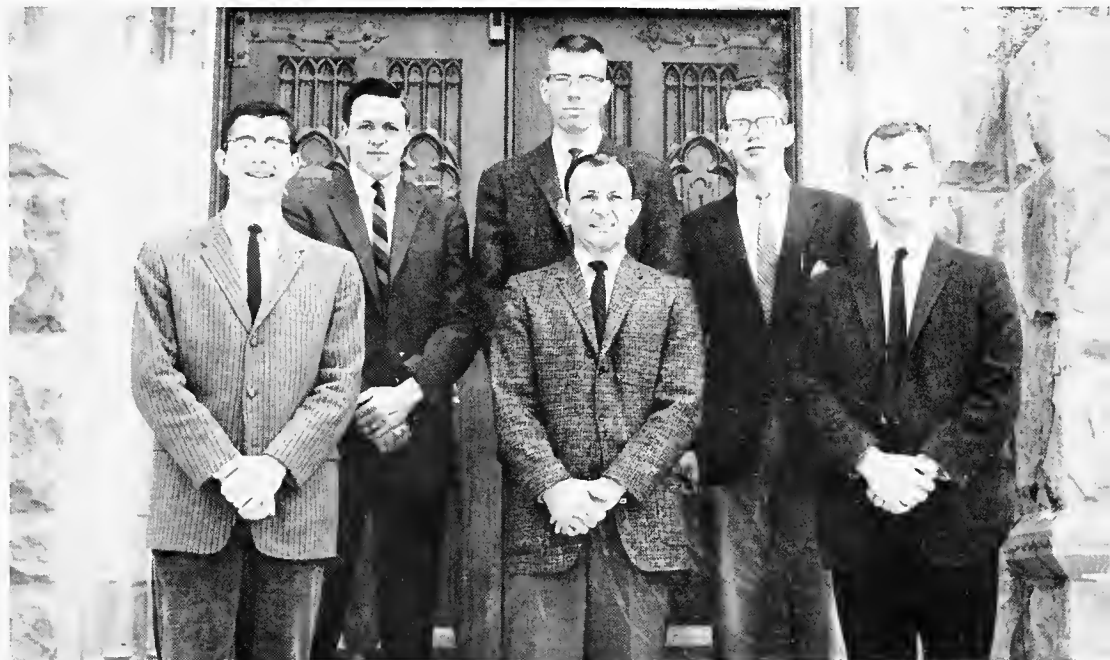

PI SIGMA ALPHA

Pi Sigma Alpha is the national political science honor fraternity. The Gamma Sigma chapter was established in 1958. Its purpose is to "stimulate productive scholarship and intelligent interest in the subject of government."

SIGMA PI SIGMA

Sigma Pi Sigma is the national physics honor fraternity, whose chapter at Sewanee began in 1957 as the Sewanee Physical Society. The encouragement of underclassmen whose interests are in physical science is a major purpose of the society.

STUDENT VESTRY

The Student Vestry is made up of elected members from each class in the University, one representative from the Theological school, and one SMA cadet. This group works with the Chaplain on campus religious activities and helps to plan the Church budget. They also work to secure guest speakers for All Saints' Chapel and promote the reading of the lessons in chapel by members of the Vestry and Blue Key. The Inquirer's classes and the annual Lenten programs are two of the Vestry's most appreciated projects.

SOPHERIM

Sopherim, the main purpose of which has been to bring together students interested in creative writing for study and criticism, has been a functioning body at Sewanee since its beginning in 1904. Established as a local organization through the efforts of William Alexander Percy, it has in time spread to other campuses, and a national fraternity, Sigma Upsilon, was built around it. At meetings held twice a month, there is analysis and criticism of the members' writings, and three times a year, consideration of short stories, poems, and essays of persons interested in joining the group. Sopherim's principal public service is to bring a prominent man of letters to lecture once a year at a meeting open to the entire student body. Members of the faculty are often invited to speak on topics of interest.

SEWANEE JAZZ SOCIETY

The Jazz Society, a new and dynamic organization on the mountain, strives to develop "an appreciative consciousness of Jazz, among the students and residents of this community."

The Sewanee Jazz Society was solely responsible for two fine major concerts this year, featuring the Dave Brubeck Quartet and the Louis Armstrong group. Other concerts were presented throughout the year, featuring jazz artists more geographically available. The entire mountain is indebted to Gray Smith and his inspired band of enthusiasts.

Student membership is limited to fifteen upper-classmen, who are elected upon unanimous approval by the members of the Society. Faculty advisors are Dr. Charles T. Harrison and Dr. A. Scott Bates.

MUSIC CLUB

The Music Club was founded eleven years ago and consists of students, both musicians and non-musicians, with a sincere love of music. Its purpose is the broadening and stimulation of its members' musical interests, as well as the promotion of interest in serious music on the Mountain. This year the club helped to sponsor the Chattanooga Symphony Orchestra and Chamber Ensemble. Several student programs of jazz, song, and classical music were produced. Membership in the Music Club is elective and is limited to twenty-five, but meetings are generally open.

SEWANEE CAVING SOCIETY

The Sewanee Caving Society is one of the newest organizations on campus, having been formed in November of last year. Membership is open to anyone interested in Spelunking. Expeditions with communally purchased equipment are the main objective, with lecture and slide programs held at the monthly meetings.

With the assistance of Dr. Frederick R. Whitesell, the society has made several successful assaults on such East Tennessee caves as Big Room, Hubbard, Solomon's Temple, and Crownover.

The society is looking forward to becoming affiliated with the National Spelological Society in the very near future.

VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

The Sewanee Volunteer Fire Department is responsible for protecting the entire community of Sewanee from disasters caused by fire. This outfit has grown in efficiency during the past few years, with many opportunities to practice. The department is made up entirely of volunteers from the student body of the University who are selected after taking competitive examinations which test the student's knowledge of firefighting techniques and his common sense. This year's fire chief was Fred McNeil, whose assistant was Bob Gaines.

WAITER'S GUILD

The Waiter's Guild is the organization of students who serve the meals in Gailor Hall. It is composed of thirty members under the leadership of Bob Kane, the Headwaiter, and Jim Wisialowski, the Assistant Headwaiter. The Headwaiter is directly responsible to Mr. Oates, the Director of Foods. The organization was formed in 1957 to provide financial assistance to those men who were willing to earn it by becoming waiters. The Guild is organized into four groups so that one group is off each day while the other three groups work. Since its organization the members have been awarded Blue Key points, and regularly held parties each semester.

FORESTRY CLUB

The Forestry Club is a new organization on the Mountain. Its members are students in the Forestry department, who are interested in furthering their work and study outside the class room. The efforts of the Forestry Club were much appreciated during the great ice storm this winter. Charles McKinley headed the Foresters this year.

SEWANEE AUTOMOBILE CLUB

The Sewanee Automobile Club was formed last year to promote safety, enjoyment, and proficiency in the sport of motoring on and around the Mountain. Captains Patton and Feeney, of the AFROTC detachment, served as faculty sponsors again this year.

The Club has grown in membership, property, and recognition this year. A private clubroom in the music building was procured; rally equipment, books and journals were purchased.

Rallies and gymkhanas are some of the expressions of the love of motoring which the Club has sponsored. Besides the increased interest in rallying among the students, several area sports car clubs have recognized the Club and inter-participation in events has begun.

This Year's officers were Dave Wilson, President; Dave Arn, Vice President; Walter Crawford, Treasurer; Yerger Johnstone, Secretary.

DEBATE COUNCIL

The Debate Team, sponsored by the Debate Council, consists of men who have shown interest and ability in forensic competition. The team expresses the students' interest in both debate and oratory. The Debate Council, which grew out of the two now inactive debate societies, Pi Omega and Sigma Epsilon, is the governing board of the intercollegiate and the intramural public speaking at Sewanee.

In addition to holding on-campus debates the Debate Team competed at Millsaps in Jackson, Mississippi and at the Southern Speech Association Tournament in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. They also participated for the first time in the Southern Speech Association Student Congress which was held in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

THE BELLRINGERS

The Bellringers were formed in December, 1958 by four students interested in playing the Polk Memorial Carillon, then being installed. Having received instruction from Dr. Arthur L. Bigelow, carillon designer, and Mr. Albert Bonholzer, the University Carillonneur, the Bellringers play the carillon at weekly intervals and special occasions when a professional artist is not present. Membership in the organization is by examination and election.

To be eligible for membership in Los Peones one must have either taken Spanish or be taking it at the time of his initiation into the group or be acquainted with the heritage of that sunny land south of the border. The Los Peones keep alive the traditions of the oldest segment of post-Columbian North American culture. They wear as their distinguishing costumes sombreros, serapes, and other articles of clothing reminiscent of Old Mexico. The Los Peones maintain that their purposes are "to stimulate conversational Spanish, promote fellowship on the campus, and study the social customs of Spain." The biggest push toward these goals usually comes on party weekends.

H I G H L A N D E R S

The Highlanders, one of the three truly "social clubs" on the Mountain, are distinguished by their kilts, bonnets, sporrans, and bagpipes. The group's purpose is "to increase and disseminate appreciation of Scottish customs and institutions among the student body." The Highlanders represent the freedom and unrestraint of the Scottish highlands, operating happily oblivious to the usually staid Sewanee ethos. The raving Scots are justly renowned for their inspiring impromptu performances at football games.

In the summer of 1948 a group of distinguished Sewanee students came to a "full realization of our great Anglo-Saxon heritage and wish to perpetuate those ideals. To this end they organized in the fall of that year the Wellington Club. Adopting a typically English form of government, headed by a Prime Minister and a President of the Privy Seal, they pledged solemnly to preserve the Anglo-Saxon tradition, and to fight with diligence all Scotsmen, Saracens, and Spaniards. Only those of proven noble birth and descent are allowed to sit among the honored peers, who personify in their manner and bearing the high English criteria of reserve, formality, and correctness.

The 1959 edition of the Sewanee Football Tigers finished the season with a record of four wins, three losses, and a tie. After losing three of its first four games, the team staged a second half comeback to raise its final mark above the .500 level.

Coming in the wake of the undefeated 1958 season this would seem to have been a rather disappointing season. However, when one realizes that several key performers, notably Little All Americas Bob Potts and Andy Finlay, were missing, this past season is seen as another fine job by coach Shirley Majors. The 1959 team relied to a major extent upon freshmen down the stretch run and the experience that they received should mean a return to 1958 form in the near future.

The Tigers opened the season on the Mountain against Howard of Birmingham. The Alabamans invaded with team vastly improved over the one that Sewanee handled with ease in Birmingham the previous year. Guided by slick quarterback Joe Millazo and with a powerful line anchored by tackle Henry Storey, the visiting Bulldogs handed Sewanee its first defeat in two years as they whipped the Tigers 20-0.

Traveling to Jackson, Mississippi the following week, the Tigers evened their record by defeating Millsaps 21-0. Walt Wilder paced the Sewanee attack as he scored twice and totaled 144 yards rushing for the day. A fumble recovery on the Millsaps six by tackle Jody Gee set up Wilder's first score as he went over from the three. Midway in the third quarter Wilder scored from the two as the culmination of a 39 yard drive which had seen him pick up all but one of the yards gained. With six minutes remaining in the game, freshman John Brown gathered in a punt and went 69 yards to register the final Sewanee tally. Bill Shasteen, who was to be a very reliable place kicker throughout the season, added the point from placement after each touchdown. Sewanee showed an overall improvement in this game, particularly in the blocking department.

A revenge-bent Hampden-Sydney team came to the Mountain on the following Saturday, and handed Sewanee its second loss of the season as they defeated the Tigers 35-0. Feet halfback Bill Benson hit the scene for the day when he went 55 yards into the end zone on the second play from scrimmage. Early in the second quarter Claiborne of the visitors booted a 17 yard field goal to widen the margin to 10. Then, thirty before the half Bob Rice got off a booming punt for Sewanee and it appeared that the Tigers would have the visitors bottled up near their own goal but Tommy Davis went 95 yards with the punt to put Hampden-Sydney ahead 17-0 at the half. After a scoreless third quarter Claiborne kicked his second field goal of the day, a 15 yarder early in the fourth quarter. With nine minutes left in the contest, Bill Benson ran an interception back to the Sewanee 16 and the visitors scored in four plays with Everette going the last four yards. The final score of the day for Hampden-Sydney came in their final play, an 11 play 63 yard drive and came as the result of a 10 yard Davis to Simms pass which was only the second completion of the day for the winners as they relied on a crushing ground game.

The game the following week was the annual Homecoming contest for the Tigers and they were keyed very high as they took the field against a strong Mississippi College team. Sewanee played the heavier visitors on very even terms during the first half and took a 6-0 lead to the dressing room. They achieved their touchdown when Walt Wilder plunged over from the one after Jody Gee had recovered a fumble on the Mississippi College three. The Chocetaws had been backed to their goal by a 39 yard punt by Bob Rice which had rolled out on their one. In the early moments of the third quarter, Mississippi College took the lead as they stormed 70 yards with the second half kickoff. Fullback Bridges plunged over from the one and Thomas kicked the point. Bridges got his second score of the day in the fourth quarter as he went 12 yards to cap a 52 yard march. Thomas again converted to make it 14-6. Following an interception shortly thereafter, the visitors went 45 yards in 10 plays for their third score with the play off coming on a 22 yard pass from Therrell to Holland.

Another Therrell pass, this time a 26 yarder to Oliver accounted for the Choctaws final points with but 17 seconds left in the game. This game saw tailback star Walt Wilder shift over to wingback and leave the tailback slot for Freshmen Ira Frye and Wallace Pinkley.

Sewanee launched its comeback the following week as it soundly defeated Maryville 22-6 in the losers' field as three freshmen tailbacks Frye, Pinkley, and Gill showed the way. Sewanee scored in the first quarter after senior end Jim Gibson recovered a fumble on the Maryville 25. The key play in the ensuing drive was a 19 yard Frye to Gibson pass. Frye ultimately went in from the two and Bill Shasteen converted. In the second quarter Sewanee marched 68 yards for its second score with Frye tossing 12 yards to Dale Ray on one occasion and sprinting 19 himself. The touchdown came as the result of an eight yard Frye to Wilder pass. Frye then ran the extra points over to give the Tigers a 15-0 lead. The home team's Doug Mincy then went over from the six to end a 54 yard Maryville march to make the score 15-6 at the half. Sammy Gill sparked Sewanee to its third score as he accounted for 69 yards rushing and threw a 13 yard pass to end Joe Brittain during a long penalty-plagued march. Gill finally scored from the three and Shasteen's unerring toe put the final margin at 22-6. This game saw the extensive use of freshmen as first year guards Winkie Turner and Neil Monroe and freshman tackle John Turner all drew starting assignments.

On the road again the following Saturday, Sewanee traveled to Danville, Kentucky to play the always tough Centre Colonels. After a hard fought game the Tigers headed home with a scoreless tie. During the first quarter Sewanee received two scoring opportunities as they recovered fumbles in Centre territory. The first of these came after Jim Gibson covered a fumble on the Centre 37. A fourth down pass with the ball on the eight went just a trifle long. Shortly thereafter another fumble recovery on the Centre 26 gave the Tigers another opportunity but this bid was stalled on the Centre 11. Centre missed a 31 yard field goal attempt in the second quarter and shortly before the half Steve Pensinger halted a Center drive by intercepting a pass on the Sewanee five. The second half was a defensive struggle with Centre supplying the only threat in the fourth quarter as they missed a 19 yard field goal attempt. Pensinger running at fullback set the pace for Sewanee with 78 yards rushing. The line play was by far the best of the season, the Sewanee forwards answering the challenge of Centre's good running game. The punting in this game was also outstanding as Ernest Cheek got off punts of 63 and 55 yards.

Traveling to Memphis the next week, Sewanee won a thrilling comeback win from Southwestern 21-19. Down by 19-7 at one point in the third quarter, the Tigers came back with a vengeance. This game was marked by spectacular offensive thrills and the first of these came in the first quarter when Southwestern quarterback Echols rolled out to his left and went 71 yards down the sidelines to give the Lynx a quick

6-0 advantage. The Tigers took the lead a few minutes later when alert Jim Gibson pounced on a fumble on the Southwestern 38 to set the stage for a march marked by the throwing of Ira Frye and the receiving of the ever-present Gibson. Two connections involving this duo accounted for 21 yards and then Frye tossed five yards to freshman end Jim Sanders for the touchdown. Bill Shasteen then shoved Sewanee ahead 7-6 with a perfect placement. Southwestern then came back to regain the lead before the half as the Lynx went 36 yards in six plays with quarterback Weatherby going over from the one. An attempted pass for the extra points failed, making it 12-7 at the half. Early in the third quarter Billy Landers, who led the Lynx in rushing for the day, zipped 78 yards for the third Southwestern touchdown. And this time the try for the extra point was made good from placement by Truscott to make it 19-7. The Tigers then took the ensuing kick off back 52 yards in seven plays with Ira Frye accounting for the majority of the yardage and going the last 12 for the tally. Shasteen converted to cut the margin 19-14. Still in the wild third quarter Sewanee moved 73 yards for their final score mainly on the strength of four completions by Wallace Pinkley. Pinkley hit both senior ends Dale Ray and Jim Gibson twice to set it up for Steve Pensinger who crashed over from the two. With Shasteen's kick, the comeback was completed. This was without a doubt the Tigers' finest performance to that date. They played as a unit and with a fierce desire to win.

In their final game of the 1959 season the Tigers ended the campaign on a victorious note as they stopped Washington and Lee 15-14 with a touchdown in the fourth quarter. This game was played in very poor conditions on Hardee Field as the Mountain was shrouded in fog making it almost impossible to see across the field. Under these weird conditions, a game was played which produced the unusual. Both Sewanee touchdowns were scored by linemen. Tackle Jody Gee crossed the goal for the first time in his Sewanee career when he intercepted a screen pass in the first quarter and went 50 yards to give Sewanee a lead which grew to 7-0 with Shasteen's conversion. W. & L.'s Jack Groner threw two long strikes in the second quarter to give the lead to the Generals. Groner flipped to halfback Richard Mosby for a score on a play which covered a total of 64 yards and he hit Funkhouser for 45 yards to put the ball on the Tiger 7 from whence Funkhouser powered over. In the fourth quarter the Sewanee line took charge of the game and W. & L. was only able to get off three rushing plays. After the Tigers had been halted on the W. & L. 7, Sewanee recovered a fumble on the General's two. However, the aroused Virginians held the line on their one. Instead of kicking out of danger immediately, W. & L. tried one play and it proved disastrous as co-captain Max Young fell on another fumble in the end zone for Sewanee's second touchdown. Then Ira Frye threw a pass to Walt Wilder who made a diving reception to give Sewanee a hard-earned 15-14 victory. This was the last game for the six Sewanee seniors and they all had large roles in the win. Both ends Jim Gibson and Dale Ray who had been hampered by injuries earlier in the season, excelled in this contest. Center Dennis Thompson, fullback Steve Pensinger and guard Max Young played great defensive ball and

Hoot snags pass and goes.

Walt through the middle for yardage.

Walt Wider ended his collegiate career on a dramatic note with his grab of the winning pass.

Sewanee can reflect upon this season's team with a great deal of pride. It picked itself up after losing a pair of discouraging games to play an exciting brand of ball during the second half of the season. The Tigers will lose six starters from the 1959 team but will profit from the experience given freshmen during the season. Freshmen to see frequent action besides the tailback trio were ends Jim Sanders and Joe Brittain, tackles Wayne Rushton and John Turner, guards Winkie Turner and Neil Monroe, and wingback John Brown. Experienced sophomores returning next season include fullback Bob Rice, wingback Frank Kinnett, and centers Bill Yates and Bill Shasteen. Back next year will be junior guards Bob Kneisly and Sam Rogers, center Larry Chandler, alternate captain guard Danny Woods and Co-captains tackle Jody Gee and blocking back Ernie Cheek.

CAGERS HAVE WINNING SEASON, 14-6

Varnell pumps sure-fire strategy into his starters.

For the past ten or so years the Sewanee Tiger basketball team has always seemed on the very verge of greatness. At the end of each season the prospects for the next year always seem bright and hopeful. Yet they never seemed to materialize as the cagers battled through each season in valiant attempts to maintain a .500 average. The year of 1959-1960 saw this changed as the Sewanee edition of basketball powered its way through a punishing twenty game schedule and finished with a 14-6 record. Losing only to such strong teams as Vanderbilt, small college powerhouse Stetson, and Mississippi College, Coach Lon Varnell called it the greatest team he had ever coached at Sewanee.

The team was once again led by captain "Snuffy" Gelston, guard and senior, who teamed with junior "Poochie" Tomlin at the other guard position. Dick Dezell started the year at center and played there until circumstances forced him off the team at semester break. Fortunately his position was filled with great success by freshman Josh Nunn. For the second straight year Larry Varnell and Sparky Edgin teamed at the forward posts where they made a consistent strong showing. In reserve Freshmen John Smith and Ed Hatch and senior Charlie Joseph were often used by Varnell. Smith played especially good ball, and often started for the Tigers.

Traditionally the Tigers open the season against powerhouse Vanderbilt. Though they dropped the game 87-68 the Tigers played very good ball. This was the first time the Tigers had scored over 50 points against a Commodore team in years, and it was obvious that this was a team to be reckoned with in games to come.

In the next four games this strength was realized as the team dropped Washington and Lee 81-73, and Centre College 68-54 at Sewanee, and then traveled to Birmingham where they defeated Howard College 70-57, and 94-74 on consecutive nights.

This four game winning streak was broken two nights later in DeLand, Florida when the Tigers were stopped by Stetson University in the Stetson Invitational Tournament. The score was 80-73 for Stetson, and the Tigers had to settle for a third in the tournament by defeating Mercer University the following night 70-64.

Following the Christmas break the Tigers quickly returned to the victory trail as they smashed Millsaps 74-54. However, the next night they suffered their first cold night of the season, and were defeated by the same Millsaps 55-53.

Smarting from this defeat, and urged on by the realization that they were capable of better ball, the Tigers jumped to two quick victories over Birmingham-Southern 68-44 and Lambuth College 68-41. The victory over Lambuth was especially sweet as this school is a constant powerhouse. Sewanee perhaps had their best night of the season in that victory.

Once again, however, a cold night and a tiny gym at Maryville, Tennessee sent the Tigers to defeat, as they were upset stunningly by Maryville College 74-66. At this time the game with Chattanooga was cancelled, and it was a cold Tiger team that faced Lambuth for the second time. Lambuth rolled to an eleven point victory over the Purple as they won 86-75. The effects of not having a game for nearly three weeks proved too much to overcome.

With that defeat the team finally showed the power that had been there all year long. Five straight victories were recorded by the squad as they powered past Southwestern 76-70, Howard 73-59, Birmingham-Southern 77-58, Southwestern again 79-67 in one of the roughest games of the season, and finally revenge against Lambuth in the Mississippi College Tournament as they defeated them 75-67.

The season ended in defeat for the team. They faced Mississippi College for first place in the Mississippi College Tournament on the night of February 20 and received their worst defeat of the season. The final score of 130-92 proved only that they were playing one of the offensive powerhouses of the nation. Considering that Mississippi College was the only team to score 90 points against the Tigers over the entire season is some indication of their power. The defeat forced the Tigers to accept a second place in the tournament and closed the season on a slightly sour note.

But the future looks very bright. Only captain Gelston graduates from the squad. The outstanding freshmen have a year of experience and such stars as Sparky Edgin will be only juniors next winter. If Sewanee does not suffer from dropouts and transfers, next year could see the first undefeated record in the history of the school.

CROSS COUNTRY

Poor timing, bad weather, injury, inexperience, and stiff competition the Sewanee cross-country team had one of its worst seasons in many years. Of all these inexperience was undoubtedly the greatest contributor to the 0-2-1 record posted by the thin legs. Only captain Chuck Swinehart, and team-member Fred Brown, and Danny Tatum were back from the powerful team of a year before. Backing them were seven other men who had not been in the earlier teams and needed training badly.

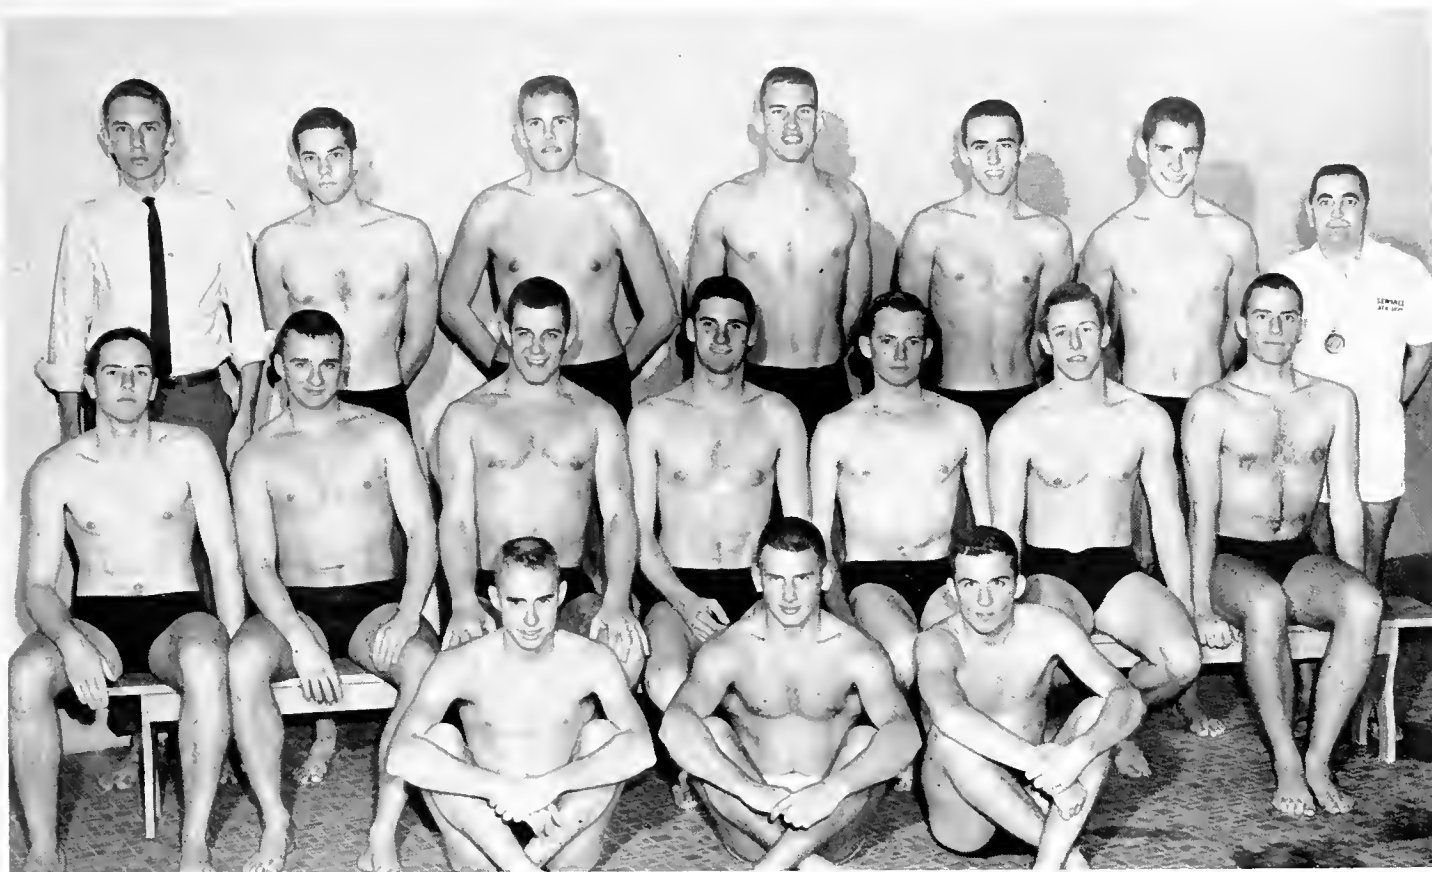

Not though there were no victories on the record, the team did very well with its limited resources. Only in the Bryan Invitational did they finish out of the running. In other meets they were never worse than third. Their two best efforts were against the University of Tennessee and Southwestern. In the Tennessee meet they were second, and tied Southwestern for the first place in that meet.

Next year should be brighter with the return of captain and star runner Chuck Swinehart, and lettermen Thomas Carlson, John Mitchell, and Dan Tatum. Cross-country has always been one of the school's strong sports and Coach John Webb will have the boys leading the pack again next time around.

In their second year under Coach Ted Bitondo the nationally potential Sewanee swimmers enjoyed another winning season. Against stiff competition from powerful Southeastern Conference schools, Bitondo's swimmers compiled an 8-2 season. Former champion Bitondo turned a fairly green squad into a well rounded team which at the season's end took first place in the first Southeastern A.A.U. meet at the University of Alabama.

Captain Tony Veal again led the swimmers with his brilliant performances in the sprints. Record holder Veal in his second year as captain was high point man for the squad. Charlie Robinson, next year's alternate captain, turned in outstanding performances all season. The sprinters were greatly reinforced by Jim Studeman, a powerful and promising freshman. In the distances returning lettermen Bob Kring, next year's captain, and Drew Meulenberg improved to lead the way in this event. Freshmen Dick Warren helped in this department. In the breaststroke, four year man Chuck North again proved his worth to the Tiger squad, and a promising freshman, George Lewis, did more than assist him. The backstroke was headed by dependable Fred Brown, alternate captain, who has lettered three years for Sewanee. Dick Wolverton, outstanding freshman, proved to be a valuable point man in this event. Buddy Wimer, sophomore letterman, again added strength in the backstroke. Bob Hudgins, another freshman, also added reserve in this department. In the butterfly powerful Jim Dean led the way and little Bill Studeman, a fierce competitor, backed him up. Grant LeRoux, former Junior Olympic champion, and Ronnie Zodin, also Junior Olympic competitor, took care of the diving.

Next year with the loss of seniors Veal, Brown, Dean, and North the squad is expecting rugged competition from the same or stronger teams. But with a fine crop of freshmen, experienced sophomores and juniors, and a fine coach, there seems to be a bright future for swimming at Sewanee.

Sewanee recorded victories over the following teams in the past season:

Emory University, University of Georgia, Georgia Tech, Clemson College, Vanderbilt University, University of Kentucky, University of Louisville, and the University of Alabama.

WRESTLING

This year's Sewanee wrestling team suffered greatly from lack of experience. The grapplers were only able to post one victory in five dual matches but they held their own in the season-ending Southeastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Tournament.

The young Tigers opened their season in Atlanta where, despite winning performances by Wunderlich, Yates, and Gee, they were defeated 25-11 by Emory. In their next match the Purple downed Birmingham Southern 18-16 at Sewanee with Hank Haynes and Bill Yates providing the highlights by pinning their opponents.

Birmingham Southern got revenge on Sewanee in the Tigers' third match as they bested the Purple 20-15 in Birmingham. Once again, however, Haynes, Yates, and Wunderlich were winners in their divisions. Sewanee closed out its dual season with a pair of losses to the strong University of Chattanooga team. In the first match, the Tigers went down 16-11 as two Sewanee men, Bill Yates and Fred Wunderlich, handed their respective opponents the first defeats they had suffered in over two seasons of regular competition. In the last match Chattanooga again prevailed 21-8 as Haynes, Wunderlich, and Yates tallied the Tiger points.

In the SEC meet at Maryville, Sewanee captured one first place medal, two second places, and two fourth place awards. Bill Yates was the SEC 177 lb. champion and Fred Wunderlich was runner-up in the 157 lb. class. Jerry Smith came out for the squad at mid-season, and finished the year in grand style by taking fourth in the 147 lb. division. Barney Reagan, another mid-season addition to the team, took fourth place in the heavyweight class after being pitted against men with weight advantages up to 60 lbs. Another promising young wrestler for the Tigers was freshman Brian Badenoch, who competed in both the 157 and 167 lb. classes.

During the spring holidays, sophomore Bill Yates, who sported an undefeated record for the 1960 season, took part in the National Intercollegiate Wrestling Tournament and reached the quarterfinals.

GOLF

With only one returning letterman from last year's winning golf team the Tigers had one of their worst records in golf in the last few years. The record of three victories, five defeats and a third place in the T.I.A.C. Tournament was not up to Sewanee standards. Inexperience plagued the squad, as none of those playing were seniors, but all should be back to pace the Tigers to greater things next year.

The first match saw the Tigers fall $3\frac{1}{2}$ - $14\frac{1}{2}$ to the University of Chattanooga. There was a return to victory as David Lipscomb went down $10\frac{1}{2}$ - $7\frac{1}{2}$. Then came three defeats as Lambuth won 8-10, Southwestern saw victory 8-13, and Chattanooga won 8-10.

The Tigers quickly recovered and dropped Lambuth in a return match 10-8, and then slaughtered David Lipscomb 20-1. The last two dual meets were disastrous for the team as Vanderbilt defeated them 4-23, and Mississippi State dropped them 9-18. The season ended with a third place in the T.I.A.C. Meet.

The squad, coached by Walter Bryant, was led by Ted Stirling and Rufus Wallingford. Other lettermen were Sam Powell, Townsend Collins, and Tom Wise. With all of them back next year the Tigers should once again return to their winning ways.

T E N N I S

Sewanee's tennis team, hampered by lack of experience, faced an overpowering slate of opponents and only managed a 3-7 record this season.

Coach Walter Bryant and Dr. Gaston Bruton began the year with just two returning lettermen, Captain Phil George and junior Fred Freyer.

Ed Hatch, John Buss, Franklin Robson, and Tom Browne were freshmen who were thrown into the college tennis circuit against such formidable opponents as Georgia, Tennessee, Cincinnati, Western Michigan, Vanderbilt, and Mississippi State.

There were bright spots in the season, however. Tiger netmen displayed rare form in copping the Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crown at the state championships held in Chattanooga.

Sophomore George captured the number one singles title. Teammates Hatch and Robinson won the number two and three singles, respectively. George and Hatch, downed only by Michigan's doubles team in regular season action, combined to take the Tennessee doubles crown in the tournament.

In scheduled play, Sewanee netmen took victories over David Lipscomb, Emory, and Florence State.

When asked about the 1960 tennis season, Coach Bryant remarked, "Our team has completed a successful year. This year's tennis schedule was extremely tough. Our boys were interested in playing tennis. They didn't want to face a watered down schedule to score an impressive record."

Taking note of the experience Tiger netmen got this season, Bryant pointed out that next year's prospects look extremely bright.

Head track coach Horace Moore built up a track team around a nucleus of seven returning lettermen this spring and came up with a winning combination. Sewanee cindermen set a pace of three wins and two losses in dual meet competition. The Tigers tied down fourth place in the Howard Invitational Trackmeet at Birmingham and took a fifth spot in the Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Meet at Cookeville.

Shot putter Arnold Bush was one of the big reasons Sewanee trackmen downed such formidable opponents as Eastern Kentucky State College, Emory University, and Bryan College. Bush set the pace for the Tigers, scoring 46 points throughout the season. Versatile co-captain Jerry Moser, who competed in the high jump, broad jump, high hurdles, and low hurdles, was second high scorer for the Tigers with 43 points. Co-captain and quartermen Bill Barnwell, sprinter David Barr, broad jumper Jim Davenport, and quartermen Hank Bonar were other outstanding figures in Sewanee's success.

The Tiger mile relay team, composed of sophomore Dave Barr, freshman Wayne McGregor, freshman Hank Bonar, and senior Bill Barnwell developed into one of the top combines in the state. At the Howard Invitational Meet, the quartet posted a sizzling 3:28.0 time for the mile and broke the previous school record of 3:28.8.

Speedsters Dave Barr and Ed Nash, who was injured throughout part of the season, were newcomers to the cinder team. The pair set the pace for Sewanee in the 100-yd and 220-yd dashes.

Barnwell and Bonar, two members of the mile relay team, ran individually to carry the Tigers in the quarter distances. The top 880 men for Sewanee were Phil Holland and freshman Eaton Govan. Miler John Rothpletz sparked the team in his department. New trackmen Jack Mitchell and Carl Cundiff carried the purple in the two mile event. Moser and Dave Connor were outstanding high hurdlers. Low hurdle hopes rested with Moser, Walt Chastain, and Ed Ellzey.

The Tiger tracksters were exceptionally strong in field events. Theolog Bush and freshman Robert Weston anchored down the shot put and discus divisions. Fred Wunderlich, Bill Stewart, and Christie Hopkins hurled the javelin. Davenport was the Tiger pole vaulter. Moser paced Sewanee in the high jump and broad jump, supported by Bonar in the height event and Dave Connor in the broad jump.

BASEBALL TEAM

This spring for the first time in 38 years the University fielded a baseball squad. Playing an abbreviated schedule under the direction of Coach Majors the Tigers posted a record of five wins and four losses. A pair of victories over the Vanderbilt freshmen highlighted the season.

Opening the season against Bethel College in McKenzie, Tennessee, Sewanee suffered defeats on consecutive days. The Tigers went down 12-9 the first day with wildness on the part of the Sewanee hurlers largely responsible for the loss. The next day the score was 7-1 as freshman Jackie Munal went all the way for Sewanee and accounted for the Tigers' lone tally with a home run.

Sewanee then put together a winning skein of four straight games with three of the contests being played on the Mountain. Revenge in part was realized against Bethel as the Tigers walloped the visitors 13-4 with center fielder Walt Wilder showing the way with a 4 for 5 performance at the plate. Sewanee was denied complete retribution as rain caused the cancellation of the following day's game with Bethel. That same week Sewanee handed the Vanderbilt freshmen the first of the pair of defeats that the junior Commodores were to suffer at the hands of the Tigers. Billy Stewart went all the way on the mound and he picked up his second win of the week as the Purple recorded a 13-7 victory sparked by the clutch hitting of catcher Dennis

Thompson. Jackie Munal won his first two games in the next two contests as Sewanee won 10-3 over Lambuth and 6-3 over the Vandy freshmen. Surviving shaky first innings in both games Munal pitched strong ball in two route-going performances. Wilder was 3-5 in the Lambuth game including a two run homer and he contributed a long triple in the Vanderbilt test. Thompson produced the third Tiger homer of the spring in the Vandy game.

Sewanee closed out the season with a three game road trip which saw them win one and lose two games. Lambuth was defeated 6-5 with third baseman Larry Chandler, Wilder, Thompson and Munal each contributing two hits. Bill Stewart was credited with his third win of the season in this game. The next afternoon in Memphis the season was brought to a close as the Tigers dropped both ends of a double header to Southwestern. They lost the first game 5-3 with Munal taking the loss despite the fact that he surrendered only three hits. In the second game Sewanee enjoyed a 5-0 lead going in the last of the sixth as Wilder was pitching a one hitter. Then the home club pushed over nine runs with the help of three errors and two walks. Immediately after the game center fielder Wilder signed with the San Francisco Giants. During the season he was the leading Sewanee batter with a .406 average and in addition he played errorless ball afield.

At the time of this article's composition, the ATO's had copped the intramural trophy, with PDT running a close second. The Tau effort was highlighted by four first places.

The intramural year began with cross-country. John Rothpletz led the Phi Delts to an easy victory with the Independents and KS finishing second and third respectively.

Touch football was, per usual, exciting and avidly followed by fans and players alike. Tailback Fred Devall and ends Clayton Parham and Ed Ellzey paced the ATO's to the championship. SAE took second place, led by Mike Boss. PGD nailed third place, mainly through the efforts of Jim Wisialowski and "Junior" Pendleton.

KA, sparked by Dave Galaher and Nat Ball, dominated the volleyball league again. Tommy Greer and Dave Fair led Beta to second place with ATO taking third.

Bob Haden, Gerry DeBlois, and Bill Hannum helped ATO grab the basketball crown. PGD, sparked by Ben Smith and Bill Shasteen, were runners-up, while the Phi Delts took third.

ATO won the handball championship due to the efforts of Joe Tucker in the singles and the Tucker-Ned Moore combination in the doubles. The Phi Delts captured second and KS placed third.

Ben Smith took badminton for PGD. ATO was second and KA third.

The University pool was the scene of the swim meet and another ATO conquest. Studeman, Inc., were the Tau standouts. SAE splashed to second, thanks to the flailings of Jim Lyman and Hubert Fisher. KS was third.

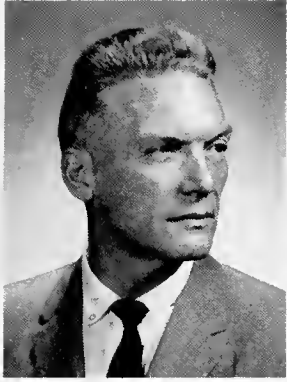

The golf cup was won by the Phi Delt twosome of Jake Ingram and Peyton Bibb. KS took second and KA nailed down third position.

Jack Morgan and Hugh Gelston batted and fielded the Phi Delts to the softball championship. Beta, led by Tommy Greer and sparkling Dick Grey, nailed down second place. Lloyd Elie and Hayward Harvey guided KA to third.

A well-balanced PDT squad held back an ATO rally to take first in the track meet. Phi Delt standouts were Hank Haynes and Hugh Gelston. John Shepherd and Josh Nunn were top performers for the ATO's. KA snared third spot.

The tennis title was won by ATO, with KS second and SN third.

Intramural directors Walter Bryant and Fred Daniels are to be commended for their smooth handling of this year's mural program. Daniels is also to be congratulated for winning "Intramural Athlete of the Year."

PURPLE MASQUE

The purpose of Purple Masque, the student dramatic organization, is to improve the quality of theatrical endeavors at Sewanee, enabling all Sewanee community thespians to participate to some degree, and to present interesting cultural activities for their audiences. This year's fall presentation consisted of three one-act plays: "The Rising of the Moon," by Lady Gregory; Strindberg's "The Stranger;" and "The Bespoke Overcoat," by Wolf Mankowitz; and two readings: Benchley's "The Treasurer's Report" and "On the Harmfulness of Tobacco," by Checkov.

Shakespeare's "Richard II" was presented in March, with an excellent cast featuring many newcomers to the Swayback stage. Howard's "The Late Christopher Bean" was presented in the late spring and during Commencement exercises.

Purple Masque was ably directed again this year by Mr. Brinley Rhys, with the able assistance of his wife, Leah. Masque officers were A. E. Elmore, President; Jerry Hall, Vice-president; Ned Harris, Secretary; and Bill Turner, Treasurer.
